Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Bible Educator, Vol. 2 The character of Joshua, Moses minister and successor, the leader of Israel in their conquest of Canaan, is, confessedly, one of the grandest and most spotless in the whole Bible. The greatness of the man is indeed to some extent overshadowed by the greatness of the events through which he moved: we know him more as a conqueror than as a man. But so far as we do know him, he is almost absolutely faultless. He is one of the very few personages of holy writ of whom no evil is recorded. Free from all desire of self-aggrandisement or lust of gain, no taint of selfishness mars the simple nobility of Joshua s character. In whatever circumstances we find him placed, his one desire is to know what the will of God is, and his one resolve to do it, at all costs. Of him, as of his true heart-brother Caleb, the unerring verdict of the Word of Truth is, He wholly followed the Lord (Numb. xxxii. 12). Who, then,...
