

Past My Cell-By Date

By Tom Graham

Coleman House Publishing, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 178 x 111 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Thomas Graham was born on the wrong side of the tracks in Gateshead in 1939. He never knew his real father but his mother did her best and life wasn't too bad until George, his violent new father arrived on the scene. Tom describes himself at the time as an impotent pygmy pitted against a powerful evil giant. Things went from bad to worse and it wasn't long before he was sent to St Gilberts approved school, run by Christian Brothers, who tortured and brutalised him and many others, for no other reason than to slake their sadistic thirst. Beat the child to save his soul was the school's motto. It was during this time that he found he excelled at sport and, in particular, boxing. All his opponents were George, against whom one day he would get his revenge. At the same time Tom discovered literature and found he had a natural aptitude for writing. Fuelled by excesses of alcohol, however, crime increasingly became a way of life and he spent...
